About Churches Conservation Trust

Churches Conservation Trust (CCT) is the national charity caring for historic churches at risk. As the operator of the third largest heritage estate in charitable ownership in the UK, our 356 historic churches include examples of irreplaceable architecture, archaeology and art from 1,000 years of English history.

Overall Purpose

To deliver a range of inclusive and unique, face-to-face learning activities in Churches Conservation Trust (CCT) churches and/or classrooms.

Role

- Deliver learning activities, predominantly to primary age school children (inc. EYFS), in CCT churches and/or classrooms. Some family learning delivery may also be required. These activities will be pre-planned and resources are provided.
- Communicate with the Heritage Learning Officer to co-ordinate booking, delivery and evaluation of activities.
- Adhere to safeguarding and health and safety best practice and have a commitment to inclusion and access for all.
